

Scottish Women's Convention Monthly Newsletter

Dear Reader,

Thank you to everyone who attended and participated in our recent events surrounding Misogyny. We held a conference in Glasgow, three roundtables and an online survey. It was great to hear what Scottish women and our panel of speakers had to say about the proposed law. The key finding from these events is that women largely supported the proposal, however felt that it is necessary to educate all groups to facilitate societal change. The full report will be available to read soon, where all recommendations on the proposed law can be found.

Best Wishes,
Agnes Tolmie, Chair SWC

The SWC are hitting the road...

From Tuesday, July 4th, to Thursday, July 6th, we will hold roadshow activities in Campbeltown. We want to meet and hear from as many women in the community and the surrounding areas. If you live nearby, we would love to hear from you. Also, feel free to share this flyer with any women who reside in Campbeltown or the surrounding regions who you think might be interested in attending.

GambleAware Stigma Campaign

GambleAware is proud to launch a major new public health campaign aiming to reduce the stigma associated with gambling harms. The campaign has been developed in response to the significant evidence that stigma is a barrier to people self-identifying as experiencing gambling harms; a barrier to accessing support and a source of harm. Click on the logo below to access resources and more information on the campaign.
